From the Diocese

IRF update - The impact of grants from the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund in the Roman Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon on children, on families, and on Indigenous language and culture was recently highlighted at a partnership appreciation event in the diocese of Saskatoon. A local Indigenous-led Discernment Circle has distributed grants to a number of projects over the past three years including Indigenous family wellness programming, summer literacy camps for children, a Cree language conference, nutrition support at St. Mary Wellness and Education Centre, a Nîkânîwin Leadership Program for youth, and a learning program for newcomers led by Elders and knowledge keepers at People's Bridge Advocacy. The diocese is within $60,000 of reaching its $1.25-million commitment towards the five-year $30-million national Indigenous Reconciliation Fund (IRF) established by the Catholic Bishops of Canada. Find out more about the fund and the local disbursements at rcdos.ca/indigenous-reconciliation-fund/ or contact the diocesan Office of Justice and Peace (306) 659-5841.

The St. Laurent Shrine is a designated pilgrimage site for the Jubilee Year of Hope. Pilgrims are invited to gather at 2 p.m. Aug. 3. Adoration and Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confessions) will take place in the Grotto at 3 p.m. Mass will be celebrated at 4 p.m., followed by a potluck meal. Jubilee Year 2025 continues! A recent update about our designated diocesan sacred sites -- where pilgrims can obtain a Jubilee Indulgence if they meet the conditions outlined by the Church * -- was recently published by the Chair of our Diocesan Jubilee Year Committee, Fr. David Tumback. His June 2 message includes a list of our diocesan sacred sites, along with details about indulgences, what they are, and how to obtain one.

* To obtain a Jubilee Indulgence for visiting a sacred site, performing works of mercy, and/or undertaking acts of penance the following conditions must be met: detachment from sin, making a sacramental Confession, receiving Holy Communion, and praying for the intentions of the Holy Father.

The sacred sites designated by Bishop Mark Hagemoen in the diocese of Saskatoon to visit as part of obtaining a Jubilee Indulgence are:

Two Cathedrals: The Cathedral of the Holy Family, 23 Nelson Road, Saskatoon, and/or St. Paul Co-Cathedral, 720 Spadina Cres. E, Saskatoon. To visit one of these active parish sites:

- Review the Mass and liturgical schedule on the parish websites.
- For individual visits, it is not necessary to alert the parish about your planned pilgrimage if you are simply attending a regularly scheduled Mass or confession time.
- Contact the parish before making any plans for group visits outside of regularly scheduled Mass and confession times, or for special arrangements.

St. Peter's Abbey: The Benedictine Abbey at Muenster, SK is also designated by the bishop as a sacred site to visit for the Jubilee Year indulgence. Please contact the abbey Guest Master at: guestmaster@stpeters.sk.ca or call 306- 682-1775 about possible visits and celebrations as part of obtaining a Jubilee indulgence.

Grow Hope Saskatchewan launches for an 8th season: Together with seven farming families, you are invited to stand in solidarity with the 783 million people in the world who experience hunger. Farming families grow crops to sell; the proceeds go toward emergency food distribution and long-term food sustainability. You can help by sponsoring the input costs to grow the food on these donated acres. This year, our farmers have committed a total of 500 acres for this ecumenical project. Each of those 500 acres needs about $350-worth of seeds, fertilizer, and other inputs. Whether you're a farmer or not, you can support this great work by giving at www.devp.org/give (make sure to assign your donation on to "Grow Hope Saskatchewan"). PRAYER: For all farmers in the world – in particular, for the farming families that grow crops, give funds, and receive support through donations to Grow Hope Saskatchewan – that this upcoming growing season may be a fruitful one, and that it may multiply the abundant graces that God has given us to feed our families this year and to share with others.
