

Imagining a More Just World After Covid-19: An Evening in Conversation with Fratelli Tutti

In partnership with the Western Conference for Social Justice (the Western Canadian gathering of Catholic folks involved with social justice promotion and action), the Centre for Faith, Reason, Peace, and Justice at St. Thomas More College will host a free, public online event.

This event will consist of a moderated, interdisciplinary panel which will reflect upon Pope Francis' encyclical Fratelli Tutti to imagine – together with the audience – a more just post-pandemic world.

Archbishop Murray Chatlain, of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Keewatin-Le Pas, will provide an initial response to the panel. A small group discussion will follow before a synthesis discussion.

Special Guests:

- Dr. Peter Baltutis, CWL Chair for Catholic Studies, St. Mary's University
- Dr. Susanna Barnes, Anthropology, University of Saskatchewan
- Ms. Georgina Jolibois, Mayor of La Loche, Saskatchewan
- Dr. David McGrane, Political Studies, St. Thomas More College

8 pm, Tuesday, March 2, 2021
