COVER PHOTO

Henry Thiessen received his Bachelor of Arts (4 year) in Classical Medieval Renaissance studies at the 2026 spring USask convocation. Very involved as a student at STM, Thiessen participated in STM's Service and Justice project, and joined the St. Thomas More College Student Union (STMSU) serving as president in 2024-2025. Thiessen's experience academically and extracurricular involvement supported his pathway to his next step, entering the College of Law.

St. Thomas More College (STM) as part of the University of Saskatchewan's (USask) main campus is located on Treaty 6 Territory and the Homeland of the Métis. We pay our respect to the First Nations and Métis ancestors of this place and reaffirm our relationship with one another.

STM is committed to Indigenization.

Through our Engaged Indigenization priority we commit to being a reconciling community inspired by the Cree concept of wahkohtowin, which calls us to adopt the ideals of holistic interconnectedness and accountability.

HOSPITABLE CATHOLICISM

Nourished by our faith, we live out STM's distinctively Catholic identity, mission, and values, advancing the Catholic Intellectual Tradition to foster the integration of faith and reason, promote social justice, and engage diverse worldviews through respectful conversation.

STM Campus Ministry endeavours to foster healthy faith growth, facilitating programs and events that encourage dialogue and reflection between faith and reason.

Campus Ministry at STM works closely with Campus Ministers from other Christian denominations and faith traditions through the University of Saskatchewan Faith Leaders Council (FLC).

Within the College, the team partners with the Newman Centre, STMSU, Development and Peace Just Youth Group, the STM Peer Health Mentors, as well as relating to the St. Thomas More Worshipping Community.

STM Campus Ministers offer confidential listening, as well as spiritual and personal guidance to students, faculty, and staff of all backgrounds.

STUDENT RECRUITMENT

Along with a variety of initiatives in the College and on campus, STM's Recruitment Officer annually connects with students from Saskatchewan High Schools, with approximately 10,000 students in attendance at the varied events that STM participated in from September to May.

Engaged Learning

The Leslie and Irene Dubé Service-Learning (CSL) Program

In several STM courses, students can partner with community organizations through Community Service-Learning (CSL). Students contribute meaningful volunteer service, develop a deeper understanding of both their courses and community, and gain valuable work experience they can take beyond the classroom. The Service & Justice Project is a co-curricular program allowing students to serve real community needs, critically reflect on their experience, and learn how to work for a more socially just world.

STUDENT COMMUNITY

Choose to expand your University experience participating in one of many STM student clubs.

For more information about any of these organizations, contact: STM Student Services at 306-966-8900.

STM Just Youth offers students a chance to learn about global social justice and solidarity through public education, fundraising, and social action campaigns. Be the change you want to see in the world!

In Medias Res is a liberal arts journal published twice a year by the College, includes fiction, creative non-fiction, poetry, photography, and print art. Students may submit their work or get involved with the editorial board.

Newman Centre - the Catholic student club on campus seeking to fulfill the social and spiritual needs of its members through coffeehouses, retreats, ecumenical suppers, dances, and other various events. Everyone is welcome, regardless of religious affiliation.

St. Thomas More College Students' Union (STMSU) is made up of an Executive and members-at-large. STMSU represents STM students and their views to the college and the greater campus community. All STM students are welcome to get involved in their work and attend the socials they host. For more information or to join as a member at large - vpcommunications@stmsu.ca

University of Saskatchewan Ukrainian Students' Association - The purpose of the club is to provide a social context in which interest in Ukrainian culture and issues are nurtured and encouraged.
