

Summer Job – Direct Support Worker

Hours: Monday-Friday from 8am-4pm

Pay: CA$19.14 - CA$21.83 per hour

Cosmo is excited to connect with students who are graduating this year or individuals who have graduated within the last five years from programs such as Psychology, Kinesiology, Sociology, or Education.

This summer position is a fantastic opportunity for career development, especially if you are nearing the completion of your studies. There is also potential for extension in the fall!

As a Direct Support Worker, you will have the opportunity to translate your academic learning into meaningful, real-world experience through person-centered supports. This role is an excellent way to build practical skills early in your career while working directly with individuals in the community.

In this role, you will:

- Apply theories and concepts from your studies to hands-on, person-centered support work
- Develop foundational skills in communication, behavioural support, documentation, and support planning
- Support individuals in building independence, life skills, and meaningful community connections
- Work alongside experienced coordinators and supervisors who provide guidance, feedback, and mentorship
- Gain valuable experience in observation, reporting, and decision-making that supports quality service delivery
