

ST. THOMAS MORE COLLEGE

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

Limited Term Lecturer/Instructor: Department of Economics

Delivery Mode: In-Person

Applications are being accepted from qualified individuals for a Limited Term position at the Lecturer rank or Instructor rank, in the Department of Economics, effective July 1, 2026 (the anticipated start date) to June 30, 2028. This is a two-year appointment.

Review of applications will begin on June 1, 2026, and will continue to be accepted until the position is filled. Applicants are invited to email their application materials to Dr. Anna Klimina, Head, Department of Economics, St. Thomas More College (STM). Email: aklimina@stmcollege.ca.

Particulars of the Position: The Department has teaching needs in introductory and intermediate macroeconomics and microeconomics, quantitative economics and labour economics. The teaching load will be six 3-cu courses over the three academic terms.

The appointment will be made at the rank of Lecturer or Instructor depending on the successful candidate's qualifications. Ph.D. in the discipline is preferred. Master's degree and appropriate experience may be considered.

The salary bands for this position for the 2026-2027 academic year are:

Lecturer: $95,187 to $139,203

Instructor: $76,847 to $120,863

(salary bands are based on the 2026-2027 salary scales)

Benefits: This position also includes a comprehensive benefits package which includes a dental, extended health care and vision care plan, a pension plan, life insurance (compulsory and voluntary), sick leave, travel insurance, an employee assistance program, a professional expense allowance, and a flexible health and wellness spending program.

Teaching Expectations/Duties: STM is committed to high-quality teaching and research. Successful candidates will be expected to make significant contributions to teaching; to contribute to one or more of STM's inter-disciplinary programs (Catholic Studies; Critical Perspectives on Social Justice and the Common Good; Classical, Medieval and Renaissance Studies; Jewish and Christian Origins; Ukrainian Studies) according to his/her interest or requirements of the position; and, to forge productive links with the corresponding University of Saskatchewan Department of Economics. Successful candidates will demonstrate excellence or promise of excellence in teaching. In addition, full-time faculty duties may include scholarly work and research, service on academic committees/other administrative duties, and/or extension work and community service, as assigned by the Dean.

Application Process:

Candidates must submit an application including the following:

- a cover letter describing teaching and research strengths,
- a current curriculum vitae; all stated contact information on the CV (including the email address, phone number and home address at which applicants can be reached) must be current to enable contacting applicants, if necessary,
- a written response to the STM Mission Statement (see template),
- copies of transcripts of qualifying degree,
- teaching dossier, including teaching philosophy, copies of teaching evaluations (both by students and peers; if the applicant has previously taught courses for which he/she is applying, teaching evaluations from all courses taught should be made available), sample syllabi, and other materials as appropriate,
- While not a requirement, a statement that thoughtfully reflects on student feedback and demonstrates a commitment to pedagogical growth would be most welcome.
- sample of academic writing, and
- at least two letters of reference (please have them sent directly to the Department Head as soon as possible. Applications without reference letters will not be considered.)
- All application materials must be received by June 1, 2026.

ST. THOMAS MORE COLLEGE (STM) is the Catholic liberal arts college federated with the University of Saskatchewan. In our mission statement, we affirm that “through our teaching we are devoted to a partnership of learning and growth with our students which addresses the synthesis of faith and reason in all aspects of the human condition. The creative discovery of truth and its open dissemination nourishes our life as teachers and members of the wider academic and Catholic intellectual community.” Departments at STM collaborate with University of Saskatchewan departments in offering undergraduate and graduate programs in the humanities and social sciences.

In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, this advertisement is directed in the first instance to Canadian citizens and permanent residents. St. Thomas More College (STM) is committed to diversity within its faculty. Women, Indigenous peoples, people with disabilities, visible minorities and members of other designated groups are encouraged to self-identify on their application. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Additional information on STM College and the University of Saskatchewan is available on the STM website (<http://www.stmcollege.ca>)

While we appreciate all interest in these positions, only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

This appointment is subject to the availability of funds.